1. The duty of members of the armed forces to denounce their fellows is given special emphasis in training courses for Party agitators.
2. During a recent lecture delivered in Bucharest, Lieutenant Colonel Dionisie Enache commented as follows on denunciations in the armed forces:

"The reinforcement of military discipline is another duty that you can fulfill only by not covering up the faults of others. Even if they are your friends, if they are guilty notify your superiors at once. Occupy yourself also in reinforcing vigilance in the ranks, develop the solicitude that they should have for the good of the army."

3. In another training course a sergeant who had "unmasked a kulak" was praised. His "revolutionary vigilance" was held up as a model to all party agitators.
